

15 Montpelier Row

January 27th 1859

Dear Sir

Like you I find very strange that the air is so far greater at sea in the North, provided in the very first edition by Walker. I cannot account for such a notion. But if you want the box, take care and if you have not it I have tried it to you.

I had the bill and will take it in March as I left you you go on mind the delay.

Yours very truly
W. Stoddart
You know the

15 Montpelier Row
Westminster
Middlesex
England

Dear Sir

When I had lately I went also at Mr Sudday's who showed me the jacket from Miss Addison. But he told me they wished not to make the exchange. Thus I had the regret to be obliged to leave it. I am very sorry for them having been at the trouble to get aside all that trouble for nothing, but

23 Wellington St
Chelsea
Monday evening

My Dear Sir

I go on up town and of the other hand for a week. I have found enough to give to the ladies my Mother and the 2 I have of Dr's Gaultlett. I hope I shall be able to send

Tuesday

Dear Sir

I will take willingly Burlington and Chobon as you say they are fine 10th and Addison that I have not 2

If among the prints you part with there are Purcell, Addison or Blow London and Moz are pray let me know they are

15 Montpelier Row
Westminster
Middlesex

Dear Sir

I am glad you have escaped the bonapartist gendarmes etc etc etc etc etc etc and you are safe at home.

The French editions you mention will be very welcome as I suppose the suits deficient and London are not those I have, and I thank you very much for the trouble you took on my behalf

I got Mr Anderson's letter. I had

Dear Sir

I am told that No 20 is a very scarce book very difficult to meet I had been kind enough to tell 35 or 36 that we shall not be obliged give the utmost for all desired things.

If you have a copy of "The Foreign" and "The Clerical" and scarcely me to the day left and 8th it separate to Addison explain in how

Italian writ are taken sent here.

Mr Salakman speaks of taking either Patton and Walpole as having been taken concerted with Horne. Do you know where it is?
I know Walpole and will soon, I suppose you know all the Extracts of your fine copy of the Patton and will feel very obliged if you can send them to me.

an answer to me soon with your regard with affection Monday 17. 1783

I have great great pleasure in sending you you the two above in the second of 1783.

and if you are and would very with public
Yours truly
J. H. H. H.

January 27/59

you can remember I said always I wanted it only in exchange.
As my friend <sup>thoughtly</sup> had fallen <sup>in</sup> grounds a little or my expenses in music and showed me I spent last year for these single objects of 78 I wishes to stay for a while here of course I am always ready to take most delicious <sup>is</sup> in exchange of the rest of the life of Handel if possible beings very earnestly it will be successful yours very sincerely

W. J. G.

Thank you for the program of your Wife's Concerts & have the same but no good one.

yours in haste
W. J. G.

you be kind enough to put them aside for me I thought I had them but I cannot find them. Also let me know the price of any edition of the Sister Republic or Lesson for the harp short.

yours very sincerely
W. J. G.

I have had your most kind letters and I thank you for the information. The extract of Boyce is worth to have it allow me to say you are as meritorious young man, you are really indelibly fatigable and I scarcely can imagine how you find time to read so much being busy all the day about trade matters.

I have add no 91 to our list and if you can get it for 8 sh. it is better to have the 15 separate songs of Handel's English Edition

Is there any mean of to explain for no musician people a new edition now as it?

When is the date of Boyle's Memories?
I would like to read them.

if you find Dist. Comp. in any Edition any of music.

and as curious claim. He asked for £14 17 which have been paid by Mr Collins on the 15th of November 1855.!! There was no good reason to trouble you for such thing.

Happy to learn you are in good health. believe me to remain

Dear Sir
Yours very truly
W Schabert

There are new french editions as a sale to be known at Messrs Puttick's. I gave orders for them. Perhaps they were sold yesterday

I have the Santon translated in french by Rodrigue, but I have not the Sansone recolligé et cans del legs Rivolle. Publié à Paris chez Choron. I hope it is the last one you got. Did the Suite de l'ancien the edition engraved chez Leclerc et Moreau? I heard there is <sup>an</sup> other french translation of Santon by Ch. Czerny?