

Crickenham
18th of Sept.

Dear Sir

It is exceedingly fair of your father to repay the exchange and I beg to offer him my best thanks

I have already the Temple (2 vols) and almost all what is in the series of Powell, getting the Soudan, King Arthur Dido in the folios of the antiquarian society and besides that, the Puppet, the Indian Queen and Don Quixote old editions and also the Diogenes Britannicus.

I have also the Redemption, and even all the orchestral parts of it.

But if it is immaterial to your father

Dear Sir

I was in London through the catalogue of W.M. Bell's they have published. Not a more piece of beast, if they wish to treat me as you did. I am ready to do better each piece is 2<sup>s</sup> for 1.
I fear they will include the exchange in bill to your very truly
W.M. Bell

Will be kind enough to cut me the catalogue of Wolfe's Works of these Gentlemen

Dear Sir

Sunday night

I will have great pleasure in leaving you to have Almira, but my trust will tell I am in town, to-morrow a week for the copy is in a case where the servants cannot find it. I should be very glad to meet Mr Salaman but you know how seldom I can dispose of an evening when I am in town

I thank you for the father's extract

Dear Sir

Monday 26th Sept
1847

My Dear Sir

I had been your late communications My address will explain to you my business. I will be in town again next Monday and will call on you. I have been paying a visit to Mr. Bell It is a pleasure to thank you

I can take Delaware of arms arranged by Clarke ~~and~~ the 2 sets of Hand. Bandoos also which I saw ~~arranged~~ also published by him, and one of the beauties of Parcell 30, 24, 25, 27, 28, 30, 36, 38, 46, 51-

If we cannot agree to that, I will not remain less grateful for his kindness, gentlemen like him is!!

If by chance the several parts of Redemption were of any interest to him as an old music seller, he is very welcome to them. It will goe them to him with the greatest pleasure. They are very numerous.
(In MS.)

and a copy of Redemption can you tell me out of what number of Handed

I've often written from them when Mr. Mackinlay called on me are taken in that gabbie

"There beneath a lowly shade"
"I speak of who best can tell"
"Lord what is a man"

I enclose the list of MS. Red. Son. and I am indeed very obliged to you for your kind interference. No one of the gentlemen mentioned in your last letter wrote to me and I do not expect they will but if you can get the list of all what they have published it will be a useful document.

I had my information about the handy reduction of the half from Mr. Lunday. all the music he profided for me was exchanged on that foot, but perhaps not a favour, and owing to the great quantity.

For Mr. Mackinlay, I went with Mr. Lunday to see the portrait of Handed he is not at home, I left my name saying the object of my visit and that I would call again the

as I told you I got them I can't find I forgot How they are a little ago and can find for this collection?

of MS. Redwood is of 1767 and your exhibition of graves only 1779

Yours very truly
W. C. G.

Day following; so, I did, I sent my card the answer was Mr Mack was engaged! I said then I did not care about ~~him~~ <sup>seeing</sup> him but the portrait of Maudslayi and the answer was that the room where it is it was in repair!! you see I had good reason for my abuse of the firm.)

However, if he wished to give me a regular aff<sup>o</sup> I will call again willingly and if he will give me a list of all his firm has published from the time of Goulding till now, my calling in vain will not prevent me to insert it in the catalogue I intend to publish.

Mr Furman I know him, but he lacks not any more of the original edition by Fulton and ~~Wheat~~ <sup>Wheat</sup>aker and that the original edition of Theodore Tilton and Grant I want to make the set complete.

With many thanks again my dear Sir,
Yours very truly
